

God's favor through works?

Dear Friends, Muslims worldwide are celebrating the month of Ramadan. The traditions of Islam teach that God gives Muslims a chance to double their rewards during this month to have a much broader opportunity to get into paradise. Muslims ask for His pardon for their past sins and conduct of other meritorious behavior. Every act of kindness, prayer, giving, fasting, and anything else a Muslim can do to please God is expected. Since there is no assurance of salvation by grace for the 1.9 billion Muslims on earth, they hope to do more work as prescribed in Islamic law to have more chances to enter paradise on the Day of Judgement. Still, there is no guarantee if a Muslim is asked about the assurance; the answer usually is: 'Inshallah,' meaning 'if Allah wills.' Here is an opportunity to share with Muslims that God has already revealed his assurance available through Jesus. Grace and mercy are available through Christ (John 1:17). Let us share this ultimate and straightforward truth with Muslims.

The Night of Power: In Islam, 'Laylat Al Qadr' – the night of power, is traditionally celebrated during the last nights of Ramadan- the month of fasting, particularly on the odd nights (i.e., the 23rd, 25th, and 27th). Muslims worldwide spend the last ten nights of Ramadan in solid devotion, retreating to the mosque to read the Qur'an (i'tikaf) and recite special supplications (du'a). Many Muslims pray continuously during the night to God for mercy.

A common belief is that angels shower down peace and blessings on all who remain awake during one of the nights as they pray to God to forgive their wrongdoings and for grace and mercy for the following year. Some believe that during

A Reminder

Muslims make up nearly 25% of the world's population and comprise 53% of the non-Christian world. Sadly only 1% of all the Christian mission efforts is directed towards them.

Please pray how you may help to increase the Gospel outreach to Muslims. The Father's heart is that all may be saved (1 Timothy 2:4-6).

one of the nights, God leaves his throne; he comes to the heaven nearest to earth to listen to the pleadings of Muslims. God either listens directly or via Angel Gabriel to the requests of Muslims concerning their fate. Despite all such practices, a Muslim is never sure of mercy, forgiveness, and salvation in this life. Let's share how God has revealed himself and paved the way to forgiveness through Jesus.

Prayer and Praise Points:

- ❖ We are thankful for your unceasing prayer support.
- ❖ We pray that God will do miracles in the lives of all Muslims with hardened hearts, including those who read, listen and watch our programs, and that a moment of realization will come in their lives.
- ❖ Please pray that all the discussions and communications with our Muslim friends on the internet and in other ways will bear fruit.
- ❖ Please help us practically by asking leaders you know to open church doors to help 'equip' the body and fill our 2023-2024 schedule. The more prepared we are to share the hope in Jesus with Muslims, the better equipped we are for all lost people. The present situation in the world and the USA's open borders 'policy' has become a cause of migration of many, including Muslims, to our doorsteps, like it or not. If the body of Christ focuses on doing our part, each one reaches one; the results will be changed lives and hearts through salvation instead of being in fear of terrorism.
- ❖ We are thankful to the Lord for raising friends to help us prayerfully and financially send out copies of Steven's new book 'One God, one Mediator, One People' to Muslim contacts. Join us in achieving the goal of a million copies to be sent out to Muslims.
- ❖ We have moved many of our video presentations to other servers, and now they can be played from our websites.
- ❖ We are thankful to the Lord that many of our resources are being translated and dubbed by friends worldwide in other languages Muslims speak. We pray for more translations.
- ❖ While we lost several supporters due to death, sickness, and loss of jobs, we trust God will move upon many to share this ministry with friends and use you to open doors for equipping your church body or small group.
- ❖ A great door of effective works is open (1 Corinthians 16:9). Join us to pray for friends we have equipped and are now in the field. We pray that more workers join us in reaching the great harvest. Through your help, Muslims are being reached for Christ (Matthew 28:18-20) even in the darkest places of spiritual warfare (Ephesians 6:12).
