

How do we make this Christmas light for others?

Dear Friends, as Christ's followers we know that the Word of God is very clear about overcoming evil and darkness with the light of Jesus. So why is there so much evil? Was America not founded by our Forefathers as a nation where they escaped tyranny and persecution themselves? Was it not the Pilgrims' intention that our nation would be a refuge for the persecuted and the weary?

We celebrate Jesus called Emanuel (God with us) as the Light at Christmas. Jesus said, "I have come into the world as light so that whoever believes in me may not remain in darkness." (John 12:46). Elsewhere, he reiterated this fact: "I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life." (John 8:12). Jesus has commissioned His followers: "You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden. Nor do people light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a stand, and it gives light to all in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven." (Matthew 5:14-16) Remember that childhood song at church?

A city (nation) on the hill It is said that America is the light of the world as the city (nation) on the hill. So, how does America stay a Christian nation if Christians don't vote for our leaders and don't run for our nation's leadership? Our Forefathers claimed, "This is a Christian nation if we can keep it." John Hancock (d. 1793) said, "Resistance to tyranny becomes the Christian and social duty of each individual. ... Continue steadfast and, with a proper sense of your dependence on God, nobly defend those rights which heaven gave, and no man ought to take from us." (History of the United States of America, Vol. II, p. 229.) God's people must stand fearlessly and boldly in the face of deception and evil. For with God on our side, who can be against us? No one! God has promised his followers that if we obey His Word, He will always protect us from our enemies and have told us not to fear hundreds of times! If so, then why do the current leaders of America continue to deal with this day's darkness by trying to coexist with it, appease it, and negotiate deals as if we are inferior and they are the big bad wolf who will destroy us if we don't give them what they want? Now, in seeing this war between Hamas and Israel, is it possible for light to coexist with darkness? The spirit of life drives Israelis, but the spirit of death drives Hamas. If Israel put down its weapons, Hamas would annihilate Israel, but if Hamas put down its weapons, there would be peace until more funding is provided to rebuild its arsenal and come at Israel in another way.

The hatred for Jews and Christians taught in Islam should be very clear to our readers by now, knowing the persecution that people like Steven faced. He and others left Islam and followed after the truth wherever it led them, which was to the Bible and Jesus as LORD and Savior! Only then was he and others set free from the darkness and came into the light following the Prince of Peace, Jesus!

How much more blood must be shed before "We the People" in America, who have been given inalienable rights from our Creator to self-govern, will STAND FIRM and take back our nation and our American Constitution? For we are the head and not the tail. It's time for the true body of Christ to be united, as Jesus prayed for, for each of us to be one with the Father as He is one with the Father, and then the world will know God sent Jesus (John 17:20-23).

God has promised our generations protection and provision as long as we are faithful to Him and obey His Commandments and Commission to GO disciple the nations. He also promised that if we raise our children in the way they should go, they will not depart from it when they grow old. In a quest to try to understand what has happened to our younger generations that are so disrespectful, self-centered, and hopeless, resulting in the highest suicide rate in history, I went to Florida College in Ocala, FL.

I sat reluctantly, listening to a speaker lineup organized by a Muslim woman named Manal Fakhoury in a forum she has been bringing to that college since 2015 called TedxOcala. Every speaker brought their hopeless situation to the audience and gave their self-centered man-made ideas they called "a marketplace of ideas." In every desperate situation, including suicide, loneliness, gayness, skin color, being a Muslim woman here, ethnicity, anxiety, and being Palestinian, all feeling like victims, not one of them found eternal hope in Jesus but only a temporary fix. Most assuredly, not one true Christ follower got a chance to speak. This is all part of the deceptive Islamic agenda Muslims have to take over our nation from within. Now, I learned why our younger generations, especially in colleges and universities, stand protesting for the Palestinians on the streets of America as well. The saddest thing I, and two others found in encountering over 20 people that day was all the people calling themselves by Christ's name who should have been light in this darkness, were either oblivious of, fearful of, or appalled at the idea of reaching these lost souls with the gospel. This experience enlightened me as to why we are losing our "Christian" nation.

"This is the message we have heard from him and proclaim to you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all. If we say we have fellowship with him while we walk in darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth. But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin." (1 John 1:5-7)

"The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it." (John 1:5)

"But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for his own possession, that you may proclaim the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light." (1 Peter 2:9)

If Scripture here is all true, and it is, then why are we not embracing it in faith?

America is the final destination for people like Steven Masood, as God’s Word taught him in Matthew 10:23. He realized that this life is given once, and he should use it to the full for God’s glory. Thus, he fled persecution in his homeland and went to England. Then, when taken over from within by Islam in “TOLORATING” Muslims, he came to America. Now, even in America, he finds “Christians” trying to COEXIST with Muslims and churches turning to “InterFaith,” allowing for weak “Christians,” Muslims, and Jews to present all religions as the same. Europe is in the grip of radical Islam and socialist ideologies; it’s now running wild to take over North America.

The Final Front -- There is no other place to flee when America goes down. While in the past few years, so much emphasis has been focused on Communism, COVID-19, and other distractions, Islam has been covertly infiltrating America through immigration with open borders and back doors. So as not to offend or be prejudiced, Americans are voting Muslims into positions of authority. An evil regime has been dumbing down our military to the appeasement of Muslims and calling “Christians,” Conservatives, and Patriots the terrorists. How can darkness coexist with light?

“Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness?” (2 Cor 6:14)

How is that working in Israel? As you can see, it was only a matter of time before the Islamic regime, Hamas, surprised Israel with their attack on October 7th while supposedly coexisting. A heart of darkness full of hatred, jealousy over land, heritage, sibling rivalry, and an ideology teaching generations of children to hate the Jews and the Infidels (anyone not following Islam) can only be changed through the light of Jesus.

“The way of the wicked is like deep darkness; they do not know over what they stumble.” (Prov 4:19)

As Jesus said on the cross, “forgive them, for they know not what they do!” But how will they know about the light if the body of Christ is silent and disobedient? I believe this is why so many Muslims are seeing visions and dreams of Jesus. We just saw an article about how 200 Palestinians saw dreams of Jesus and are now seeking to study God’s Word.

God desires all to be saved. (1 Tim 2:4, 2 Peter 2:9) So how about we all become one with the Father as Jesus is ONE with Him, so in that perfect unity, the whole world will hear the gospel’s truth through you? Jesus came to set men free of the darkness! Let us get equipped to be ready to be that light into the darkness of Muslims in America and change their hearts from darkness to the light of life. – Karen Masood

Understanding the Islamic Agenda

In Europe and North America, non-Muslims are confused about the intention of Islam as a religious and political entity. They wonder: Why does Islam have two faces? Why do Muslims in the media and educational circles present Islam as a peaceful faith? Why does the Qur’an state about Islam: ‘Allah has revealed it to prevail all’? How do we respond?

Here, Steven Masood, a former Muslim, now a believer in Jesus as the source of Peace and Grace, explains:

Islamic Strategy for the World, in general, is to raise controversies on subjects like the following:

- Submission versus Peace argument.
- The Doctrine of ‘Dar al-Islam’ (abode of Islam) and ‘Dar al-Harb’ (abode of war) versus the Doctrine of ‘Dar al-Sulah’ (Abode of Treaty) or ‘Dar al-Amn’ (Abode of peace). Thus, the old trick – divide and rule.

ISLAMIC Strategy in the USA at present to win people to its side:

- Present a peaceful PR
- Refer only to peaceful verses.
- Outward Cooperation.
- Convince that the enemy is the other.
- Interfaith efforts
- Hire or rewrite US history (For example claims like: Muslims were here before Columbus and the Founding Fathers. Jefferson & others took ideas from the Qur’an to form the US Constitution).
- Present a peaceful PR for Muhammad
- Da’wa – Islamic Evangelism.
- Education.
- Financial institutions.
- The Doctrine of Taqiyya (Hiding the intention).
- Abrahamic heritage versus Judeo-Christian heritage.
