

It is here - but let Him find us at His service

Dear Friend in Jesus! Since January I have been busy teaching at our home church in several areas of study. Last month we finished 'A survey of the Old Testament' and have now embarked on a series: The Truth about worldviews. So far we worked through the topic of secular humanism and post modernism trends in the societies today. We looked into our situation as Christians and how we may voice the Biblical alternative. Next we will step into a survey of some of the eastern ideologies and philosophies considering how, as Christians, we may find bridge-points to help the adherents to know about the Truth the Bible presents.

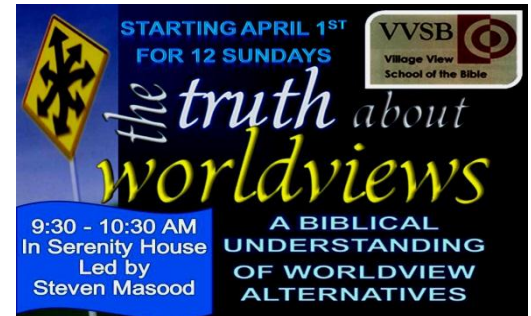

During all these studies here and around the world at Churches and Christian educational institutions, I constantly come across a terrible crisis. It is the unwillingness on behalf of the majority of Christians to face up to the ramifications of the truth. We find those who actually want to hear the truth but the average Christian is incredibly ill-prepared to answer their questions. It is not that the answers are not available; I find that there is a very disconcerting apathy. Week after week we follow our traditions, conducting midweek and weekend services with the same spoon fed sermons, reminding ourselves how God has saved us but not going deeper into how we may prayerfully, boldly and with His knowledge 'share the hope' we have in Christ with the people who do not know Christ.

Friends, with the anointing of the Holy Spirit, let us change the course of time whatever remains of it. I hear that time is running out. Friends tell me that it is all over, the sails are ready, the door of the ark is about to close. Indeed we are in the very last ticking points but I am sure there are people out there, that the Lord still seeks to come to him, even if it is a minute to midnight. Let us not forget the parable of the workers in the Vineyard (Matt 20:1-16)

We at Jesus to Muslims are committed to His call, allowing all our understanding, all our explorations, all our training, and all our time with the Lord to equip us to be His influencers and the way He wants us to be. Yes, at times we find ourselves stretched to the limit. Please, please pray for Jesus to Muslims that the Lord will bring us co-workers and the means to do it right, according to His way (Matthew 9:38; Luke 10:2; John 4:34-36), which we need more than anything else. May He find you and us all, about the Father's business, when he returns? [Steven Masood]

If you knew you only had 6 months left before being in eternity with Christ forever, what would you want to accomplish for Him here on earth before that time? If you're like me, we first think about our own family members that are not saved. However, Jesus came for all the lost so they might be saved. Jesus says what good is it to love only those who love us, but we must also love our enemies. How do we love them as Christ loves us? As Jesus loved us when we were yet sinners, we desperately need His Holy Spirit to help us to love others. They should know we are Christians by our love, but at the same time, they should know how to live out the Christian life themselves by the way we live in front of them. This shows God that we love Him with all our heart, soul and mind and that we love our neighbor as ourselves, which God has told us are the two most important commandments and in these we have fulfilled them all. This shows us approved as Christians 'about the Father's business' for He wants all to be saved.

As Christians, with assurance that when Christ returns to reign victoriously, we will be with Him, why do we not love our neighbors eternal souls more than appeasing their earthly lives? It is God's incredible unconditional love shown to us that gives us this assurance that should compel us to share His truths with everyone around us? What is it that stops us from showing eternal love, but feels that appeasing people over pleasing God is love? Is it fear of offending them or that we don't know the Bible enough to share, fearing we may not be prepared to answer their questions? Is it our apathy? Is it that we have many doubts about what we really believe? Do we feel guilty of hypocrisy by saying we are Christian, knowing we are hiding some kind of secret, deep rooted habitual sin that we have refused to give over to the lordship of Christ? We may think people don't

They will make war against the Lamb, but the Lamb will triumph over them because he is Lord of lords and King of kings—and with him will be his called, chosen and faithful followers know who we really are, while forgetting that God knows. Sadly, the majority of lost people, including Muslims have 'hypocrisy' as their #1 reason for not coming to church or becoming Christian? I submit to you that we (including me) have all become a product of our "quick fix" environment and become impatient with others. As an American, myself I can look back over my life and see that the 'earthly busyness' in my life will get no credit from God when this world has passed away.

Rev 17:14 makes it clear to me that it is the Anti-Christ Spirit of Islam which teaches that the Lamb (Jesus) never died for our sins, and is the 10 kingdoms and the beast that will wage war against the Lamb in the end. However, the Lamb will overcome and we, Christ followers, will be with Him in victory! Halleluiah! As a student of Islam, under my husband's teachings for over 7 years now, as well as the Bible, studying with women, from Kay Arthur to Beth Moore and so many others, the Holy Spirit has showed me several times, confirming in my heart, that the Antichrist will be Islamic. I have studied prophesy through Scripture and with many Prophetic leaders today, and my favorite and most revealing so far is the Prophet Daniel through a study with Beth Moore, when my spirit was confirmed of this truth. I look forward to meeting Joel Richardson soon, who wrote the book called The Islamic Anti-Christ as my spirit agreed with much of what he writes.

My conclusion is, that in understanding such a fact about the Anti-Christ, wouldn't it behoove us all that our priority 'end time goal' should be to preach the truth of the gospel to Muslims, who are willing to talk about God? You could be preventing so many innocent deceived people from destruction and may even stop one more suicide bomber from needlessly ending their own life, along with the victims! A true Christian knows the only way to heaven is through Jesus Christ as Savior! This we can be sure of, so since it is God's will that all should be saved, you would be fulfilling God's will in reaching Muslims to Christ! You no longer need to wonder what God's will is. In my training, it is so easy to see that Islam has taken much of the Bible and gone back to the OT law and twisted it to mirror Christianity so to deceive all those who follow it. It is Muslims who follow Islam. Satan deceptively uses Muslims following their 'religion' to deceive, weak minded, angry & desperate people, non-Christian and Christian alike, and even 'religious' people to convert them to Islam, to ultimately achieve the goal of dominating the whole world with Islam (an Anti-Christ spirit).

Today, American leaders, media, business people, families and neighbors have all been deceived by a 'religion (an angel of light)' that comes in the name of peace and harmony, but ultimately will wage war in the battle of Armageddon so to dominate by hook or by crook. That is exactly the plan of Satan in this Spiritual battle we are in for the souls of men/women today, before Christ returns to ultimately be victorious over it all! But do not fear, for God will protect and guide you if you seek the Kingdom of God first and foremost, for it is the power of the Holy Spirit in you that works, not you. Steven's testimony proves it, so believe it and receive the whole truth and most of all live devotedly for Christ so you can win some and look forward to hearing "well done, good and faithful servant" from our Father in heaven and live victoriously with Him forever and ever.

If Jesus needed to pray to the Father before his crucifixion, how much more do Christ followers need to pray, reminding Him of His promises in His Word? We first need to repent and give everything to Christ on the cross so that we can please God in getting our own house in order. James 4:7 directs us to submit to God and stand against the enemy, rebuking him and he will flee from us. This is being wise in the spiritual realm.

Love motivates us to reach others to share what we know to be true. We at Jesus to Muslims are here to stand in the gap with you, to educate/equip you, and help you overcome the challenge Muslims will give you. There is no time to spare! Let us take action together, in unity, as one with God, to reach these other lost sheep, before the end comes. He's doing it through dreams and visions but wants you and I to be involved also. The harvest is great, and the laborers are few. Won't you help us narrow the gap today? [Karen Masood]
